LOST.—Two black face lambs. When last seen were near cemetery on Hustonville pike. Reward. W. W. White, Lytle.

FOR RENT.—My property on Danville Avenue. Good garden and cow lot. Miss Mollie Daugherty. See Mr. John A. Allen.

MORRIS FRED, formerly of this place, but in latter years a Danville merchant, has taken the bankrupt law. His liabilities are placed at $5,400.

LARGE APPLES.—Mr. John Skidmore, who lives on the top of Mason's Gap, has on exhibition in the Lincoln County National Bank some apples which weigh 22 ounces. Who can beat that?

I WILL move to Lawton, Oklahoma, in a few weeks, but my sons, Walter and Elmer Denham, will continue the coal business in Stanford. Thanking the people for a generous patronage, I ask a continuance for my boys. W. R. Denham.

PROF. LIPPARD, of the Richmond Business College, is here looking for bright young men and women, out of whom he can make good book-keepers and stenographers and prepare for good positions. Prof. Lippard has just graduated five young people and sent them into good positions and has calls for more than he can supply, he informs us.

NOTICE.—Public Speaking at the court house Saturday afternoon at 2:30. Rev. Geo. Gowen, of Nashville, and Rev. F. M. Tindler, of Lancaster, will be among the speakers. It will pay you to come to town especially for this meeting. Ladies will be cordially welcomed. Lovers of eloquence will receive a treat by attending. Committee.

REV. JOSEPH SEVERANCE, of Scott county, the new chaplain at the penitentiary, has arrived and assumed charge of his flock beyond the walls. Dr. Severance is a very gifted divine and will do a great work in his new field. He has a charming personality, and will be a welcome addition to the ministerial body of the Capital.—Frankfort Journal.

JESSE FITZGERALD, the Negro who killed Mrs. Robert Broughton at Barbourville, was convicted there and the sentence of death imposed upon him by the jury. The trial of Annie Henson, indicted jointly with Fitzgerald, was begun Friday. Fitzgerald will be brought here for safe-keeping, says a dispatch. The Henson woman, who was tried separately, was given 15 years.

In speaking of Mr. Homer Baughman, of Danville, who will deliver his lecture, "Religion and Politics," at Alcorn's Opera House, Hustonville, on Friday evening, next, the Danville News says: "Mr. Baughman has always taken a deep interest in the politics of his country. He is a man of capable attainments, an orator of force and magnetism and we predict that he will handle his subject in a manner that will delight his audience."

BANK STOCK.—I will sell at public auction on Monday, Sept. 10th, county court day, five shares of stock in the National Bank of Hustonville. Sale will take place in front of the court house at 1 o'clock P. M. W. H. Harris, executor Mrs. M. B. McAlister.

THE committee on Local Option calls upon all the women of Lincoln county to join in the movement against the saloon. Who can fathom the despair and misery that has come to a faithful woman through the saloon and its natural consequences? Who knows where that shame and sorrow may fall next? For the sake of our common humanity as well as for the sake of those near us, let us open our eyes to the great crisis that is upon us. The women of every community ought to organize, at once and go to work to arouse a great moral force to meet this crisis. Meet together in your homes for prayer and talk to those you can influence to cast their votes for the homes and churches of Lincoln county. There will be public meetings at Crab Orchard Friday night and at Stanford Saturday afternoon. All the women of those communities should not fail to attend the meetings and bring others with them.

COMMITTEE.

HUFFMAN.—After a long illness of troubles attendant on old age, Mrs. Mary Jane Huffman died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Henry R. Camnitz, in Hustonville, at 6 o'clock Saturday evening. Funeral services were conducted at the Christian church by Rev. G. W. Mills Sunday afternoon, after which the remains were laid to rest by the side of her husband, who preceded her some eight years. Deceased was the relict of Joseph E. Huffman and was the daughter of Mrs. America Bailey. She would have been 80 years old had she lived until October and most of her long sojourn on earth was spent in the West End. Mrs. Huffman is survived by two daughters, Mrs. Camnitz and Mrs. Kate Culbertson, the latter of Covington, and one son, Mr. William S. Huffman, of Hustonville, and in her death they lose a kind, indulgent and godly mother. She is also survived by the following sisters and brother: Mesdames Samuel Reid, J. W. Hocker, Priscilla Drye and Helen Huffman, all of Hustonville, and Judge J. P. Bailey, of Stanford. When very young Mrs. Huffman joined the Christian church at Hustonville and had since been a worthy member. She was regular in attendance at its services as long as her health would permit and now that her accustomed seat is no longer filled, the church will not seem the same to those who for over a half century had seen her worship Sunday after Sunday. Mrs. Huffman was a hard worker for the cause of temperance, 60 years ago joining the Crusaders and later becoming a charter member of the Women's Christian Temperance Union. She was a good woman and 'twas well that she was permitted to live to a ripe old age that the influence of her christian character might be felt by her children, grandchildren and others. May He Who tempers the wind to the shorn lamb comfort the bereaved ones in their great loss and cause them soon to realize that the death of the truly good is but the beginning of life eternal.

LGST, Saturday between Stanford and Cash's store on the Hustonville pike, a set of check lines. Reward. A. C. Hill.

THE Crab Orchard Graded School tax is due. Call at the bank and settle. Penalty goes on Sept. 1. George W. Bronaugh, collector.

THE remains of Mr. Julian Bourne, who died at Prescott, Ariz., last week, arrived last night and the interment will take place in Buffalo Cemetery this morning at 10 o'clock after short services at the grave by Rev. Gilbert Glass.

NOTICE.—There will be a Mass Meeting at the Baptist church in Crab Orchard Friday night at 7:30. Rev. F. M. Tindler, of Lancaster, will be the principal speaker. All voters of the community cordially invited to be present. The Ladies are also urged to attend. COMMITTEE.

ONE of the laws passed by the last Legislature requires all persons doing business under a firm name, in which the full name of one of the partners does not appear, to file information in the county clerk's office of those composing the firm. A penalty is imposed for violation of $25 to $100 or imprisonment of from 10 to 30 days.

THE Brodhead fair was largely attended each day, but the crowd of Thursday was the largest in the history of the association. The show of stock was up to the average, the accommodations were good, the music by the Williamsburg band was fine and the hospitality of the clever Brodhead people was even greater than usual. President R. H. Hamm, Secretary Granville Owens, the directors and others who were interested in the enterprise have a right to feel proud of their exhibition. There was not an arrest nor a loud word during the three days and everything ran as smoothly as the most fastidious could wish. The hotels took splendid care of the hundreds of guests. It was the writer's good fortune to stop at the Albright Hotel, where the best of everything was served well and in greatest abundance. We were too busy to keep account of those who wore the ribbons, but recall that in the fan-cy turnout ring our corpulent friend, Fred Durham, with Miss Clyde Wil-mot, won the "slick" tie. He drove R. L. Collier's good sorrel gelding, Chiselbond. Will Chancellor, of Lincoln, with a mighty pretty girl, whose name we did not learn, got second with his stylish turnout. Col. J. P. Chandler, of this county, made a capital ring master. David S. Wilcox won the trot Friday afternoon, with Jack Pollard second. A. B. Bastin, of Crab Orchard, took the running race, hands down.
